

NINTIRINGTJAKU PROFILE
RACHEL TILMOUTH
ENGAWALA COMMUNITY

I grew up at Alcoota Station. All my family lived there. It was a happy life, everyone together. I went to school at Alcoota. It was hard because it was always English. My language is Arrernte. I went school to grade 8. Around this time Engawala Community got our own Council. Now we have our own shop, council, clinic, school. I worked as a cleaner at the shop, picking up rubbish. I did other work at the shop too, serving customers. All this time I was learning more English. I have been on Management Committee for Waltja for over two years now. I help with Waltja training for Engawala. I speak English and Arrernte.
