

Selection Criteria – Field Worker Trainee

- a. Prepared to maintain strict confidentiality, reliability, honesty and trustworthiness.
- b. A willingness to effectively communicate with and be sensitive to the cultural protocols of all peoples.
- c. Good written and oral communication skills in the English language.
- d. Willingness to perform all tasks whether they are about computers, vehicles, cleaning, training or field work.
- e. Willing to be involved in all Waltja activities in the office, at meetings and workshops, at training, presentations and markets, out bush.
- f. Willingness to learn and use various computer programs and online data bases.
- g. Willingness to actively engage in a supportive work environment and to come to work each day and on time ready to participate.
- h. Prepared to work within Waltja's organizational values, code of conduct and safety principles.
- i. Prepared to travel to central desert communities several times a month.

DESIRABLE but not mandatory:

Completed year 12

Drivers licence

Knowledge of the central Australian environment and Indigenous culture.